AAEM 100% GROUP MEMBERSHIP

100% group membership can be an investment that pays for itself!

Be sure to explore the additional benefits and value of an AAEM-PG membership.

100% Group Membership provides individual physicians with professional benefits and savings. It is also a requirement for groups seeking membership in AAEM Physician Group (AAEM-PG), which offers additional organizational benefits for independent, democratic emergency medicine practices.

100% GROUP MEMBERSHIP: VALUE FOR EVERY PHYSICIAN

With a 10% discount on annual AAEM dues, membership is approximately $536 per board-certified emergency physician. The benefits exceed that amount!

MEMBER BENEFIT	ILLUSTRATIAVE VALUE
Scientific Assembly registration	Save approximately $550–$600 per physician, depending on registration category. GREATEST BENEFIT
Healthmonix / MIPSpro	Preferred MIPSpro pricing available to 100% Member Groups and AAEM-PG groups. Depending on group size and use, savings may offset membership costs. GREATEST BENEFIT
Online continuing medical education	Annual online CME access valued at $99, included at no additional charge.
Certifying Exam Review Course	Save approximately $500 on course registration.
Additional programs and services	Discounts on other educational programs, professional resources, and select partner services.

For physicians attending Scientific Assembly, registration savings alone may exceed the approximate annual group membership cost. For the average group accessing the MIPSpro, your savings with Healthmonix will more than pay for the membership rates!

Actual savings will vary for group and depend on participation and applicable rates.*

AAEM-PG: ADDITIONAL BENEFITS FOR QUALIFYING GROUPS

Eligibility: A group must participate in AAEM's 100% Group Membership program to qualify for AAEM-PG membership.

AAEM-PG is designed to help independent, democratic emergency medicine groups remain successful, competitive, financially sustainable, and physician-controlled. Its value extends beyond individual education discounts to support the organization as a whole.

DIRECT AAEM-PG MEMBER OPPORTUNITIES

- Complimentary Scientific Assembly registration for AAEM-PG group members attending the meeting.
- Complimentary opportunity to exhibit in the shared AAEM-PG booth at Scientific Assembly.
- Invitation to the AAEM-PG reception at the annual meeting.
- Complimentary job bank advertisements to help recruit emergency physicians.
- Access to preferred Healthmonix MIPSpro pricing through the group partnership.

ORGANIZATIONAL SUPPORT AND STRATEGIC VALUE THROUGH THE PG

BENEFIT	VALUE TO THE PHYSICIAN GROUP
Practice management	Access to knowledge and support related to operations, financial management, governance, and organizational performance.
Contracting and negotiations	Guidance relevant to hospital relationships, payer contracting, reimbursement, and vendor agreements.
Physician independence	Advocacy and support for physician-led practices navigating consolidation, corporate influence, and contract challenges.
Recruitment and retention	Positioning independent, physician-owned groups as attractive, fair, and transparent places to practice.
Specialized expertise	Connections to expertise in billing, coding, reimbursement, benefits, operations, and business strategy.
Credibility and collaboration	Alignment with standards emphasizing physician ownership, transparency, workplace fairness, and patient-centered care.
Networking and leadership	Connections with peer groups and experienced physician leaders; resources for governance and succession planning.
Advocacy	A collective voice for independent emergency medicine practices and physician autonomy.

WHERE MEMBERSHIP CAN DELIVER ADDITIONAL ROI

In addition to the direct savings above, strong group operations and leadership can generate meaningful financial and operational returns:

RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION

Reduced recruiting and physician replacement costs; fewer unfilled shifts.

CONTRACTING

Opportunities for improved reimbursement, hospital contract terms, or vendor pricing.

PRACTICE OPERATIONS

Greater administrative efficiency and tighter cost management.

GOVERNANCE AND LEADERSHIP

Fewer disruptive disputes, stronger succession planning, and better continuity.

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Greater readiness for market shifts and changes in hospital relationships.

These are potential outcomes, not guaranteed savings. The availability, scope, and cost of specific advisory or consulting services should be confirmed with AAEM-PG.*

THE BOTTOM LINE

100% Group Membership can provide significant savings and professional resources for every participating physician. For qualifying independent groups, AAEM-PG adds opportunities for visibility, recruitment, collaboration, advocacy, and organizational support. Together, the programs invest in both the individual physician and the long-term strength of physician-led emergency medicine.
