CME CREDIT: The American Academy of Emergency Medicine (AAEM) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to sponsor continuing medical education (CME) for physicians. AAEM designated this educational activity for a maximum of 6.00 hours of AMA PRA Category 1 credit™. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit he or she actually spent in the educational activity All faculty and planning committee members participating in CME programs sponsored by AAEM have disclosed to the audience any real or apparent conflicts of interest to the content of their presentations. AAEM's Education Committee and ACCME Subcommittee have established procedures to resolve conflicts of interest. The target audience includes board certified emergency physicians, board eligible emergency physicians, emergency medicine residents, pediatric physicians and residents, and medical students. AAEMLa does not endorse any particular management style but supports patient rights, the professional rights of the practicing emergency physician, and the ethical integrity of our profession.
