

Section Leadership Criteria

Section leadership positions provide interested individuals the opportunity to become involved with the engagement and development of AAEM Section activities. General responsibilities of leadership are to:

- Hold regular Council meetings (via Zoom call)
- Schedule an in-person Section activity or meeting (up to 2 hours) at the AAEM Scientific Assembly each spring

The goals of the Section Council leadership are to:

- Educate, engage, and develop members through organizing educational online webinars, mentorship, skills development, socials/networking, and/or specialty certificate exam preparation
- Oversee Section activities
- Set the Section direction and long-term planning

Who is eligible to nominate leadership positions in the Section?

Full voting, associate, fellows-in-training, international, resident, transitional, and medical student members of the Academy and Section are eligible to nominate for leadership positions.

Who can be nominated for Section leadership?

Section members may nominate an eligible member or themselves for any open position on the Council. (See nomination exceptions below.)

To be eligible to serve as Section leader (Chair-Elect, Secretary/Finance Chair, Councilor or RSA Representative), the interested individual must be:

- An AAEM member through 12/31/2022
- An active Section member who maintains membership in the Section throughout the duration of the term they are elected
- Able to attend Section meetings and take leadership in an area of your choice

In the event that a position(s) is uncontested, the slate of uncontested nominations may be approved by the current Council by a unanimous vote without holding elections.

Nomination Exceptions:

Resident and Student Association Representatives for CCMS and YPS are nominated by the AAEM/RSA Section Council and approved by vote of the Section Executive Council. RSA representatives for other Sections (EMS, EUS, JEDI, and WiEM) are nominated by Section membership.

CCMS Chair-Elect and Secretary/Finance Chair officers must be active AAEM members and have completed a Critical Care Fellowship at the time of application/nomination.

Who is eligible to vote in the Section for executive council and councilors?

- CCMS: board certified members

- EMSS: board certified fellow and board eligible members
- EUS: board certified members
- JEDI: board certified members
- WiEM: board certified members
- YPS: All members of the Section

Who is eligible to vote for the RSA representative?

- CCMS: nominated by the AAEM/RSA Board of Directors and approved by vote of the Section Executive Council
- EMSS: any Section member
- EUS: any Section member
- JEDI: any Section member
- WiEM: any Section member
- YPS: nominated by the AAEM/RSA Section Council and approved by vote of the Section Executive Council
