OF

The Missouri Chapter Division (MOAAEM) of the American Academy of Emergency Medicine, Inc

ARTICLE I

Name/Organizational Status

The name of the organization (the “Chapter Division”) is “The Missouri Chapter Division of the American Academy of Emergency Medicine, Inc.” The Chapter Division is a division, not separately incorporated, of the American Academy of Emergency Medicine, Inc., a Wisconsin nonstock corporation organized and operating pursuant to Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (“AAEM”). As a division of AAEM, the Chapter Division exists and operates under the ultimate auspices and control of AAEM.

ARTICLE II

Purposes/Powers

2.1 Purposes/Objectives. The Chapter Division has been created and is organized for the purpose of promoting and protecting excellence and integrity in the practice and management of emergency medicine in all clinical and administrative settings within the state [s] of Missouri (including, without limitation, the development, publication and promotion of appropriate branches and professional standards in the emergency medicine industry); improving the quality, providing professional and public education, and to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purpose or in advancement thereof, and not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain.

Under the auspices of AAEM, the Chapter Division is committed to all of the founding principles of AAEM, including:

- Every individual should have unencumbered access to quality emergency care provided by a specialist in emergency medicine.
- The practice of emergency medicine is best conducted by a specialist in emergency medicine. A specialist is defined as one who, through personal dedication and sacrifice, has attained certification by either the American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM) or the American Osteopathic Board of Emergency Medicine (AOBEM).

The Chapter Division is also committed to the following principles:

- Chapter Division supports and promotes emergency medicine in all practice environments. These environments include both urban and rural settings given the demographics of our member s. In addition, Chapter Division promotes the practice of Emergency Medicine community hospitals as well as tertiary medical centers.

- Chapter Division promotes fair and equitable practice environments. Without fair environments, specialists in emergency medicine cannot deliver the highest quality of patient care. Fair practice environments incorporate employment agreements with due process provisions, fairness in scheduling, just compensation, and the absence of restrictive covenants.
- The personal and professional welfare of the individual specialist in emergency medicine is a primary concern to Chapter Division.
- Chapter Division seeks to promote emergency medicine and advance the interests of Chapter Division members through effective advocacy at the local and levels.
- Chapter Division supports the growth and sustainability of emergency medicine residency programs and general medical education. These programs are essential to the continued enrichment and evolution of Emergency Medicine, and to the delivery of high quality care to our patients.

These Bylaws shall be effective only as to matters pertaining to the Chapter Division and shall not alter or contravene any provision of the Bylaws or Articles of Incorporation of AAEM or the AAEM Chapter Division Operational Terms and Conditions in effect between Chapter Division and AAEM. Any provision of these Bylaws which purports to alter or contravene any provision of the Bylaws or Articles of Incorporation of AAEM or the AAEM Chapter Division Operational Terms and Conditions shall be null and void and have no force or effect.

2.3 Powers. The Chapter Division shall have and be permitted to exercise all powers, rights and privileges as are authorized by Chapter 181 of the Wisconsin Statutes and which are not inconsistent with IRC Section 501(c)(6) status, subject to such restrictions as are set forth herein or to which Chapter Division is otherwise subject and such oversight, control and/or restrictions as AAEM may otherwise impose from time to time.

2.4 Funds. The Chapter Division may seek gifts, contributions, donations, and bequests for the purposes of Chapter Division and AAEM and all funds received by Chapter Division shall be dedicated to and invested solely for such purposes.

2.5 Nondiscrimination. In the pursuit of its purposes and the exercise of its powers, the Chapter Division shall make its services and activities available to the community that it serves regardless of race, color, creed, gender, sexual orientation or national origin

2.2 Records. The Board of Directors and/or AAEM may keep the books of Chapter Division in such place or places as they may from time to time determine in accordance with Section 181.1601 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

ARTICLE III

Membership and Privileges

3.1 Classes of Membership. Membership in the Chapter Division shall be a privilege, not a right, and is dependent upon the applicant for any class of membership demonstrating compliance with the requirements for membership as defined in the Bylaws and otherwise by the Board of Directors of Chapter Division or AAEM. There will be four (4) classes of membership in the Chapter Division: Voting, Associate, Resident/Fellow, , and Medical Student members.

3.2 Voting Membership. Voting membership is available to individual physicians having certification in emergency medicine or pediatric emergency medicine by either the American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM) or the American Osteopathic Board of Emergency Medicine (AOBEM). A voting member of the Academy shall be entitled to vote in elections of directors of the Chapter Division, each voting member being entitled to one (1) vote in such matters. Voting members shall have no other voting rights with respect to matters pertaining to the Chapter Division nor shall they have any voting rights with respect to matters pertaining to AAEM.

3.3 Associate Membership. Associate membership is available to individual physicians who has graduated within the last seven (7) years from an Accreditation Council on Graduate Medical Education or American Osteopathic Association approved emergency medicine training program. Associate Members shall have no right to vote.

3.4 Resident/Fellow Membership. Resident/Fellow membership is available to individual physicians who are residents or fellows in emergency medicine at an accredited emergency medicine residency program. Resident/Fellow Members shall have the right to vote for the resident/fellow representative to the Board of Directors of the Missouri Chapter Division and shall have no other voting rights. Resident/Fellow Members are entitled to reduced dues as determined by the officers and Board of Directors. Resident members are encouraged to and not obligated to hold a dual membership in AAEM and the AAEM Resident and Student Association.

3.5 Student Membership. Student membership is available to individual medical students at an accredited medical or osteopathic program. Student members shall have the right to vote for the student representative to the Board of Directors of the Chapter Division and shall have no other voting rights.. Student members are encouraged to and not obligated to hold a dual membership in AAEM and the AAEM Resident and Student Association.

3.6 Membership Application. Each applicant for membership shall submit an application to the Chapter Division in such form as may be determined by Chapter Division from time to time.

3.7 Obligations of Members. By virtue of membership in the Chapter Division, each member agrees to be bound by these bylaws and all lawful rules and practices adopted by the board of directors of Chapter Division.

3.8 Action on Behalf of Chapter Division. Only the officers and/or the Board of Directors of Chapter Division or AAEM, and other authorized agents of the Chapter Division or AAEM, may state policies or positions on behalf of the chapter.

3.9 American Academy of Emergency Medicine Membership. Members of the Chapter Division shall not be required, and are encouraged to join AAEM. Chapter Division membership shall not entitle the person to any benefits of AAEM membership.

3.10 Resignation. Any member may resign such status by delivering written notice of same to the Secretary-Treasurer.

3.11 Member Dues. Annual dues shall be determined by the Board of Directors each year for the ensuing year. Dues shall be reduced for resident and student members. The Board of Directors or its designee shall from time to time establish policies with regard to nonpayment of dues.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings of Members

4.1 Meetings. Meetings of the members may be called for any purpose by the President or by the Board of Directors. Additionally, the Chapter Division may hold an annual meeting of members upon determination by the President or the Board of Directors, which may be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of AAEM.

4.2 Voting. Each voting member in good standing and only voting members in good standing, shall be entitled to vote in all elections of officers and directors of Chapter Division as provided herein. Any such election shall be decided by a majority of voting members voting in person, or electronically.

4.3 Quorum. The presence in person or conference call of not less than 5% voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of members of Chapter Division during which an election of directors shall occur.

4.4 Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the place (which may be within or without the State of Wisconsin), day and hour of any meeting of members and shall be delivered either personally or by first class U.S. mail or electronic mail, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) days nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of such meeting.

4.5 Voting by Written Ballot. Any vote that may be under taken at a meeting of the members may be under taken without a meeting if Chapter Division delivers a written (paper or electronic) ballot to each member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballot shall set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action. Approval of voting by written ballot is valid if the quorum as listed under 4.3 is met and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number required for a membership meeting.

A solicitation for votes by written ballot shall include all of the following:

- (i) the number of responses required to meet the quorum requirements;
- (ii) the percentage of approvals necessary to approve the action; and
- (iii) the time by which a ballot must be received by Chapter Division in order to be counted.

A written ballot may not be revoked.

4.6 Proxies. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE V

Board of Directors

5.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the Chapter Division shall be managed by its Board of Directors, the power and authority of which shall be subject to such coordination, oversight and control by AAEM as it may determine in its discretion from time to time.

5.2 Number and Composition. The Board of Directors shall be comprised of five (5) at-large directors, (1) Resident Member Representative and (1) Student Member Representative, plus the officers of the Chapter Division.

5.3 Appointment of Directors/Eligibility. The initial officers and at-large directors shall be appointed by AAEM and shall hold office for a term of one (1) year or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Thereafter the term of president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and at-large directors is two (2) years. At-large director terms shall be staggered so that an equal number of at-large director terms expire each year. No officer or board member may hold more than one position on the board at a time. Term limitations of three consecutive terms are established for Board of Directors at-large members. No elected president, vice-president, or secretary-treasurer shall stand for re-election for consecutive terms in the same position. The first term of the resident representative and student representative shall be one (1) year. The resident and student representatives will serve for one (1) year with a two (2) consecutive term limit.

In the event of a tie vote, the decision will be made by the current president and confirmed by majority vote of the current board of directors. Board members appointed to board positions in mid-term shall not have term limitations applied to their partial term.

Only voting members of the Chapter Division shall be eligible to serve as director and no individual may be nominated for election to the board of directors unless first approved by AAEM.

5.4 Vacancies. In case of any vacancy in the membership of the Board of Directors, the Chapter Division board or AAEM shall appoint a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place shall be vacant.

5.5 Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors may hold their meetings at such place or places as they may determine, subject to approval of AAEM in its discretion.

5.6 Regular Meeting. The regular meetings of the Board of Directors for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held at such place, date and time as the President may designate in the month of each year.

5.7 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the President or by two (2) of the directors then in office.

5.8 Notice. Notice of each regular and special meeting will be given by mailing or emailing the same at least twenty-four (24) hours before the meeting to each director; such notice may be waived by any director. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting. At any meeting attended by all of the directors, any business may be transacted notwithstanding the lack of due notice of such meeting.

5.9 Quorum. At any meeting of the Board of Directors a majority of the number of directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. If the number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend at the time and place fixed for any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors in attendance may adjourn from time to time without notice or other announcement at the meeting until the requisite number of directors to constitute a quorum shall attend.

5.10 Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. All actions of the Board of Directors shall be subject to review, ratification, approval and/or disapproval by AAEM.

5.11 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if action is approved by a majority of the board. Voting may be conducted by electronic mail.

5.12 Rules of Order. The Chapter Division shall follow Dr. James E. Davis' Rules of Order.

ARTICLE VI

Officers

6.1 Principal Officers. The principal officers of Chapter Division shall be a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and immediate past-president. Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected by the Board of Directors. The officers shall be directors of the Chapter Division. Only voting members shall be eligible to serve as officers of the Chapter Division and no individual may be nominated for election as an officer without the prior approval of AAEM.

6.2 Term. The term of office of each officer shall be two (2) years. Each officer shall hold office until his/her successor shall have qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. The resident and student representatives will serve for one (1) year.

6.3 Removal. Any officer or agent appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors, subject to prior approval of AAEM, and such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Appointment shall not of itself create contract rights. If an officer or director misses three consecutive meetings of the board, the board may then, at its discretion, declare the position to be vacant.

6.4 Vacancies. A vacancy in any principal office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term, subject to prior approval of AAEM.

6.5 Immediate Past-President. The Immediate Past-President shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the President, the Board of Director or AAEM.

6.6 President. The president shall be the principal officer of Chapter Division and shall provide over all meetings of the Chapter Division and the Executive Committee. The President shall also perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or AAEM from time to time. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the President, the individual serving in such office shall automatically succeed to the office of Immediate Past-President.

6.7 Vice-President The absence of the president or in the event of the president's death or inability to act, the vice-president shall perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president. The vice-president shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors or AAEM may from time to time prescribe. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the vice-president, the individual serving in such office shall automatically succeed to the office of president.

6.8 Secretary-Treasurer. The secretary shall: (a) keep any minutes of the Board of Directors meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose; (b) coordinate with the treasurer of AAEM matters pertaining to the charge and custody of funds and securities pertaining to the activities and mission of the Chapter Division; (c) see that all notices are duly given; (d) coordinate the maintenance of the books and records of the Chapter Division with the custodian of the corporate books and records of AAEM as required by law or otherwise as requested by AAEM; and (d) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of secretary-treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president, the Board of Directors or AAEM. If required by the Board of Directors or AAEM, the treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors or AAEM shall determine.

ARTICLE VII

Committees

7.1 Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers of Chapter Division which includes the president, vice-president, secretary/treasurer and immediate past president. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act on behalf of the board of directors subject to ratification by the board. A report of its actions shall be given to the board and, if requested, to AAEM.

7.2 General Committees. The board of directors may appoint such committees and task forces to address issues of Chapter Division as the board may determine in its discretion. Meetings shall be at the discretion of the committee chair. Each committee chairperson shall provide an annual report to the officers and board of directors summarizing the activities of such committee for the preceding year, a copy of which annual report shall also be delivered to AAEM.

ARTICLE VIII

Elections

8.1 Nominations. Any member of the Chapter Division can nominate an individual for any position. Only board certified, Full Voting Members of the Chapter Division can vote. To be eligible for nomination, the member must meet the requirements for membership in the section, as outlined in Article III, throughout the duration of the term for which he or she is nominated.

8.2 Nominations Timeline. Nominations will be open during a period in the fall. Officers will assume responsibility of the office immediately following the close of election.

8.3 Uncontested Nominations. In the event that no nominations are received for a particular position on the ballot, the current board of directors may appoint a member to that position by majority vote. Any member appointed by the board of directors to a position must meet all requirements, which would otherwise be necessary for nomination to that position. If no position is contested and hence requiring a formal election, the slate of uncontested nominations could be approved by the board for installation.

8.4 Online Voting. Voting in the general election will be undertaken online: one vote per person. Each voting member shall have one vote for each open position. Each open board position will be filled by the nominee receiving the most votes. Each Full Voting Member of the Chapter Division shall have one vote for President, one vote for Vice President, one vote for Secretary-Treasurer, and one vote for each open Director position. Residents will have one vote for the resident representative. Students will have one vote for the student representative.

ARTICLE IX

Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended, repealed or altered in whole or in part by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the board of directors or a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members, in both cases subject to the prior written approval of AAEM.
